We are urging all members of the Association to cast their votes to two very important individuals for the National Spinal Cord Injury Association (NSCIA) Spinal Cord Injury Hall of Fame. Encourage your friends, family members, neighbors to take part in the ballot.

Dr. Renee Tyree is nominated in the Sports Category. Renee was a member of the Women's USA Wheelchair Basketball Team that won Gold at the Paralympics in Athens, Greece. Renee is also a board member of our Association. She is currently a Pharmacist at Express Scripts.

The late John Sylvester Young, MD is being nominated in the Research and Quality of Life Category. Dr. Young founded the SCI Model Centers and developed Good Samaritan Rehabilitation Institute. Dr. Young passed away in 1994.

We need over a 1,000 votes for the candidates to be in the running. The deadline is Friday, October 5, 2007, 5:00PM EST.

We want some Arizona winners for the first time. Please take 5 minutes of your time to VOTE. Voting is limited to NSCIA members, but individual membership is free and open to anyone with a strong interest in the SCI/D community. You can only cast your vote once on your computer.

When you vote online you will be asked to join NSCIA. It's free. They send occasional email newsletters, and you will also get their newspaper, SCI Life, in your mail quarterly. Please consider becoming a member of NSCIA, just to keep up-to-date on the issues. Mailing list is used for in-house purpose only.

To vote, go to the NSCIA Web Site. (spinalcord.org) It's the lead story. Just follow the links. And explore the other categories, too. There are lots of amazing, accomplished people nominated in 14 other categories.

Mesa, Arizona – Arizona Disabled Sports is pleased to announce that it's assisting U.S. Paralympics, a division of the U.S. Olympic Committee, with distribution of applications for the 2008 International Paralympic Academy. Nationally, thirty-five student athletes with physical disabilities and 15 coaches and teachers will win a trip to the 2008 Paralympic Games in Beijing, China, Sept. 5-11, 2008.

Coordinated by U.S. Paralympics, participants in the Paralympic Academy Beijing will have the opportunity to meet U.S. Paralympic team members, attend Opening Ceremonies and athletic competitions and build camaraderie with other potential Paralympians.

"Less than five-percent of kids with physical disabilities participate in physical fitness programs," said Charlie Huebner, Chief of U.S. Paralympics. "The Paralympic Academy Beijing provides us an opportunity to recognize those kids with physical disabilities and programs that promote physical fitness programs and health."

The first International Paralympic Academy took place at the 2004 Paralympic Games in Athens, Greece. The second was held at the 2006 Paralympic Winter Games in Torino, Italy.

To enter, student athletes (ages 12-18), coaches and teachers must fill out an application, which includes writing a 500-word essay focused on the role that sports has played in their lives, as well as include letters of recommendation. Applications are available at www.usparalympics.org. Deadline to enter is April 1, 2008.

"Competitive and recreational sport opportunities are essential aspects in the lives of individuals of all abilities," said Susan Rossi, City of Mesa Adaptive Sports Programmer. "It is important to begin a healthy and active lifestyle at an early age, allowing the benefits to unfold and doors open." Arizona Disabled Sports hopes to educate new athletes, families and professionals of local opportunities with the Beijing initiative and the Arizona Paralympic Academy on Friday, October 26, 2007. The Academy will be followed by the 10th Annual Adaptive Sports Expo on Saturday, October 27th. All events will be held at the ASU Student Recreation Complex, 400 E. Apache in Tempe.

The Lobo Times, Issue #1, Getting Ready For 2007-2008

The Tucson Lobos, Tucson's only community based wheelchair basketball team is getting ready for another season. After five successful years of coaching Ray Lopez has decided to step down as head coach and veteran player Dave Kingsy has taken the job. He will be assisted by newcomer Dan Clemente who joined last year after playing in Denver for many years. Ray Lopez is now President of the Tucson Lobos and we are all very excited about the future of the Lobos. The team has grown to 17 active players, and we are continuing to recruit from the community. Our plan this year is to field two teams, one beginner and one advanced team to make sure all athletes get a lot of playing time.

As you know, one of our main goals is public awareness and we have already started our public speaking gigs with a hugely successful injury prevention speech and demonstration in August @ Marana High School. Two assemblies with over 2000 students watched as some of the Lobos hooped it up, talked about injury prevention, and got much of the school involved in the always-fun wheelchair relay races. Several of us also participated in the AZ Spinal Cord Injury camp this month in Payson and had a great time playing sports and discussing spinal cord issues in the great wilderness with some newly injured individuals. Please contact AZ Spinal Cord Injury Association about next year's camp!

Regarding Sponsorship: The Lobos have added a couple more community sponsors that are helping in raising disability awareness and getting some individuals with disabilities the opportunity to play sports. Our goal this year is to raise over 10 thousand dollars so that we can compete on the east coast once this year. This means we need to double our fundraising!

The Lobos will be practicing this year at the beautiful NW Recreation center on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6-9pm. Official practice begins on August 25th! We will also be helping out with the JAWS (Juniors Active in Wheelchair Sports) group on Saturdays from 9am to 11am! We are proudly hosting our annual wheelchair basketball camp on Jan 12th, 2007, 8am to 5pm. We are currently selling raffle tickets for this event and will be giving out many prizes at this event. Please contact us if you would like to purchase or help us sell some tickets for the event.

Here is a list of all of our fantastic Sponsors, Thanks A Million!
